

Engage with Asia Week

14-18 September 2009

Up to $1000

Engage with Asia Week : Grants to Schools 2009

Application Details

This year during Engage with Asia week, grants of up to $1000 will be awarded to support schools in the incorporation of the studies of Asia in to a unit of work. Funds may be used for resource attainment, resource development, establishment of links to Asian communities or the subsidising of cultural events and excursions related to a unit of work. The Engaging with Asia: Grants to Schools promote the teaching of Asia across a range of curriculum areas as per the National Statement for Engaging Young Australians with Asia in Australian Schools.

To obtain a grant from the Engaging with Asia: Grants to Schools you are required to:

- complete the application form below by 7 September 2009
- give a clear time frame for the unit of work
- report on the outcomes of the unit of work; providing a report about the unit of work with photographs that can be used in publications such as Classmate by 2 October 2009
- acquit expenditure on the acquittal form provided by 27 November, 2009

Schools will be eligible for one grant per school. Applications must be endorsed by your principal/manager. There are 12 grants available and the unit of work will be assessed against the National Statement for Engaging Young Australians with Asia in Australian Schools. Priority will be given to innovative units of work which show longevity.
